Notes

Two great soundtracks on one CD. First up is the superb score from Manuel De Sica to the cult giallo masterpiece Crimes of the Black Cat directed by Sergio Pastore. This has all the hallmarks of the giallo score - lovely wordless vocals for the main theme, euro/morricone style melodies, bossa beats, edgy strings and a killer groovy track!

Killing Birds is a zombie movie directed by Joe D'Amato and Claudio Lattanzi. Produced in 1987 - Carlo Maria Cordio has given the movie a pretty cool dark, brooding and surprisingly up-tempo electronic score very much in the style of a John Carpenter soundtrack. All in all a great CD and highly recommended.
