Morte Risale A Ieri Sera, La
[Gianni Ferrio]

Digitmovies CDDM039 | Format CD | Year 1970

AKA:

- Death Occurred Last Night (1970, United States, video title)
- Death Took Place Last Night (1970)
- Grauen Kam Aus Dem Nebel, Das (1971, Germany)

"For this product we were able to locate the original stereo tapes of the 1970 Cinevox LP MDF 33/35 and they were in terrific sound conditions. We searched for the complete tapes, but realized that all the recorded music for the movie filled the original 33 rpm vinyl. But the real big discovery were the missing songs "I giorni che ci appartengono" (the original film Main Titles song) and "Incompatibilità" (used as background music for the family life scenes montage with father (Raf Vallone) and her daughter) sung by the amazing voice of Mina (the Italian diva of pop music, who often has collaborated during her long career with Gianni Ferrio as author/arranger and conductor of many of her hits). These two songs were not enclosed in the original OST album and they are now two very rare bonus tracks completing the rest of the score on this disc."
